When you have your portrait taken you naturally want a GOOD one; to ensure this you must go to a place where not only the best appliances and artistic skill are to be found, but where also TIME can be taken to study your features, get their most pleasing expression, the most suitable light and graceful pose.

If the photographer lowers his prices too much he cannot take the necessary time to do his work well, but must run his customers through like sheep, trusting to the NUMBER to make his profit.

A sensible person will beware of such and prefer to go where fair prices are charged and every care taken to ensure the work turning out satisfactorily; such is the case at the "Gran Fotografia Platense" whose customers never having been driven away by excessively high prices, do not require to be lured back by catchpenny reductions.

TELEGRAMS
TO STANDARD.

Rome, 24th.

King Humbert has telegraphed to President Harrison that he will send a cruiser to the United States for the Columbus fetes, as a proof of Italy's friendly feeling for the great Republic.

St. Petersburg, 24th.

Cholera has broken out at Nijni-Novgorod.

London, 25th—There is a rumour current that a European Congress will meet to settle the Morocco affair and the question between that empire and England. The nations who have interests at stake in Morocco will be asked to take part in it, viz: England, France, Germany, Spain and Italy.

If these nations do not accept the invitation, England is determined to act alone, until her demands be complied with, as she considers them indispensable, and that all nations will be benefited by enforcing them.

Madrid, 25th.—The state of siege has been proclaimed at Pontevedra, in consequence of the refusal of the people to pay the food tax.

Paris, 25th.—In medical circles here great importance is attached to the discovery by the Vienna doctors, Benedict and Moretig, of the cure for hereditary epilepsy.

There is some anxiety in political circles owing to the resolute attitude of the German, Austrian and Italian Governments against France and Russia; and it is thought to have sprung from the recent visit of King Humbert to Berlin.

The decided support which Germany and Austria have resolved to give to Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria, by condemning the intrigues of Russia, appears to point to a desire on the part of the Triple Alliance to find a "casus belli."

Berlin, 25th—Prince Bismarck left Kissengen to-day, and was cheered at the station by more than 5000 people. Government is greatly exercised by the ovations given everywhere to Bismarck, which are considered to be a protest against Caprivi's policy. The resignation of the latter is considered to be certain before the re-opening of the Reichstag. It is also feared that, when the Emperor returns he will resort to reprisals against Bismarck.

Huelva, 25th.—An extraordinary number of visitors continue to arrive here from all the provinces. The hotels are already full; and other temporary building are being erected, as it is seen that the existing accommodation will not suffice in October. Two British warvessels are at anchor in the port.

(To the "Prensa".)

London, 24th.—It is said that Lord Coleridge will be the new Lord Chancellor, and Sir Charles Russell Attorney General for England.

Two persons were injured in a railway collision on the line from Manchester to Carlisle.

Major Pollock, of the Highlanders, has won the Queen's Prize at Bisley.

Bismarck will leave Kissengen on his return home to-morrow. He received great ovations while at the baths.

The Allegmeine Zeitung predicts the speedy fall of Caprivi.

Mr. T. P. O'Connor predicts that the New Parliament will last about three years, but not more than four.

New York, 24th.—The London Stock Exchange was quiet yesterday. Silver bars 39¾.

Berlin, 24th.—The German and Austrian Foreign Offices have approved the proposal of the Bulgarian Government to protest against the connivance of Russia at the plots against Prince Ferdinand and Minister Stambuloff.

Count Waldersee, in an interview with a correspondent of the New York Herald, has denied that he aspires to Caprivi's post, or has had anything to do with the latter's quarrel with Bismarck.

Paris, 24th.—British policy in Morocco has exasperated the French Government, which is determined to maintain its rights in that country.

NEW POSTAL TARIFF.

The budget now before Congress proposes to raise all the rates of postage on letters, papers etc. by 50 per cent. That is to say, letters to Europe will have to pay 18 cents, for the Interior 8 cents, and for the city of Buenos Ayres 3 cents. This new tariff is likely to cause a certain amount of discontent, but it is by no means unreasonable for the Minister to propose an increase on letters for Europe. The present postage, 12 cents currency, is only 4 cents of hard money, whereas the Berne Postal Convention has fixed 5 cents as the uniform rate for international postage. We are, therefore, disposed to support the Minister on this point.

Not so, however, as regards internal postage. Newspapers, for example, are already subject to sufficiently high rates, and the amount that each newspaper office has to pay weekly for postage stamps is a very heavy tax. We receive no subsidy from the Government, directly or indirectly, but have, on the contrary, to pay a large sum yearly for patentes or trade-licenses, besides heavy import-dues on paper, ink, types etc., and now it is proposed, without any compensatory concession, to put 50 per cent extra postage on the papers that we send through the post. The Minister may say that we can raise the annual subscription to our paper in proportion, but we know (with the experience of 32 years) that it is impossible.

If any advice of ours can weigh in the august regions of Congress or the Casa Rosada we should propose as follows:—

1st. To abolish the 2-cent stamp for city letters and make all letters pay 5 cents within the limits of the Argentine Republic.

2ndly. To raise the rate on letters for Europe or abroad to 20 cents.

3dly. To leave the rate on newspapers as at present, that is one cent in the Republic, four cents outside.

This change will perhaps produce as much revenue as the Minister seeks to obtain by his proposed addition of 50 per cent all round. Or if it do not, the difference will be insignificant.

We are fully of accord with His Excellency in saying that the Post Office ought to be self-supporting, but it ought not to be made to yield a yearly profit. This principle has been repeatedly laid down in the House of Commons, and it is pretty certain that Mr. Gladstone's government will adopt Mr. Henniker Heaton's scheme of universal penny-postage, based on such principle.

As regards the United States we have before us the returns for 21 years, and observe that the Post-office leaves a yearly loss of 5,000,000 $. There was a profit in the years 1882-83, but the Government at once reduced the rates on letters all over the Union to the uniform rate of two cents as charged before for letters in cities, and ever since the department shews a loss, as desired. The figures for 1890-91 were:—

|---|---|---|
| | $ | $ |
| Receipts..... | 60,880,000 | 65,931,000 |
| Expenses..... | 65,930,000 | 71,662,000 |
| Loss..... | 5,050,000 | 5,731,000 |

We should like, therefore, to see the Government of this country abjure any purpose of making a profit out of the Post Office, and at the same time take reasonable steps to make income and expenses meet.

RAILWAY BRIGANDS.

The Western Railway trains between Buenos Ayres and Mercedes are at present infested by a gang of robbers, of whom it is well for the public to be on their guard. Their plan of operations bears some resemblance to the Legado del Tio trick. One of them, generally a well-dressed, mild-looking gentleman, will accost a passenger who may be travelling alone, with some inquiry about banks or money, professing that he has never been to Buenos Ayres. Sometimes a second (brigand) will come in, and displaying a huge roll of notes will endeavor to enlist the attention or sympathy of the traveller by expressing his fear of being robbed. On two occasions these scoundrels have accosted Catholic priests, but were unable to entrap them.

Not long ago one of the priests in question might have been robbed or murdered, but that a stalwart Irish sheep-farmer opportunely entered the carriage, when the conspirators at once withdrew. It is needless to remind our readers that railway murders in Europe have become very frequent in late years, especially on the Paris-Lyons route and on the Corniche railway. Some of the same gang that infests those lines may have come to Buenos Ayres.

It will be remembered that Mr. Dillon, an Irish sheepfarmer, disappeared in 1886 and has never since been heard of. The same fate befell an Argentine estanciero of Chascomus in June 1891. So long as criminals are allowed to go at large, instead of hanging them as we do in England, railway travelling will be exposed to risks. These risks, however, may be diminished by people keeping always on their guard.

THE MAGDALENA MAILS
LATEST FROM ENGLAND

London, July 1st.

The twenty-fourth Parliament of the United Kingdom and the twelfth of Queen Victoria was prorogued on June 28. The Commons having been summoned to the Bar of the House of Lords, the Lord Chancellor read the Queen's Speech in Her Majesty's own words, as follows:—

My Lord and Gentlemen,—

The time has arrived at which it is expedient that the electoral body of this country should be consulted by the assemblage of a new Parliament. I have therefore summoned you for the Prorogation of Parliament at an earlier period than usual. I am glad to record the friendly relations which I have maintained with foreign Powers remain unaltered. The treaties have been duly ratified which refer our differences with the United States with respect to Behring's Sea to arbitration. The ratification also of the Final Act of the Brussels Conference for the suppression of the slave trade has, after many delays, been completed. The Government of France, however, has made reservations in regard to some of the provisions which affect operations against the maritime slave trade.

I have gladly given my assent to several Bills which you have been able to consider and to sanction., notwithstanding that the duration of the session has been exceptionally short. The arrangements you have made for enabling labouring men to become purchasers of small agricultural holdings will increase the class of cultivating owners, which is of great importance to the State. The application to Ireland of those educational measures which have been recently adopted in Great Britain will confer great benefits upon the poorer class of that country. You have sanctioned valuable provisions for reforming the police administration in Scottish burghs, and for extending to Scotland the facilities for the hire of allotments which were given to the people of England and Wales a few years ago. At the same time you have done much to lighten the burden of local taxation in that country, and to foster the interests of secondary and of University education. The Act for strengthening the discipline of the Church of England in regard to moral offences accomplishes a necessary reform which had been too long delayed. I have willingly accepted a measure for improving the constitution and preceeding of the Legislative Councils in India, which will, I trust, enable my Government in that country more fully to ascertain the opinions and wishes of various races and classes of my subjects, and to secure the co-operation of those best qualified to give advice and assistance in the conduct of affairs. I have assented gladly to the measures which you have wisely and generously adopted for the relief of my subjects in the island of Mauritius under the unexampled calamity which has overtaken them. In closing this Parliament, which has been unusually laborious, and has also been highly fruitful in beneficent legislation, I thank you for the assiduous performance of your momentous duties during the last six years, and I heartily commend you to the favour of Almighty God.

The fifty-fourth anniversary of the Queen's coronation was observed in London on June 28, with the customary honours. From an early hour and at short intervals the bells of the principal churches rang out merry peals, while flags were also hoisted on the towers of St. Margaret, Westminster, St. Martin-in-the-Fields, Charing Cross, and many other public and private buildings. The usual salutes were fired at the Horse Guards and the Tower of London. At Portsmouth the ships of war were dressed with flags, and royal salutes were fired by the flagship and the garrison.

That strange freak of nature known as "the Siamese twins" has, it appears, been repeated in Orissa. The 'Orissa' are described as two little Uriya girls of about five summers old. When last heard of they were leaving by steamer for this country, on their way to the World's Fair at Chicago, though they will first be exhibited here. They are, it is stated, firmly joined together, and if one is fed both are satisfied. The Siamese twins, Chang and Eng, were, it will be remembered, of the male sex. They were born in 1811 and died in America, within two hours of each other, in January, 1874.

Fresh light is thrown on the antecedents of Dr. Cream or Neill who is supposed to have poisoned 10 girls of humble life for the purpose of blackmailing London doctors. Among the witnesses is Mr. John Haynes, who became on friendly terms with Neill, on the latter's second visit to this country, and was able to furnish some material information as to Neill's knowledge of the murders. Dalziel's telegram, dated New York, June 27, states that the career of Neill turns out to be remarkable. "His real name is Thomas Neill Cream, and he was born in Glasgow on May 17, 1850. During his early youth his parents emigrated to Canada, and his father went into the wholesale lumber business, and amassed a fortune. The son was apprenticed to the shipbuilding trade, but after working some years at this gave it up. His father sent him then to M'Gill College, Montreal, to study medicine. He graduated from this institution with great credit in the year 1876." The telegram goes on to state that the man's name was associated with the death of a woman through an illegal operation at Kingston, Ontario, and with a similar case at Hamilton, Ontario. "In 1878," at Chicago, continues the agency, "Neill or Cream, was arrested for causing the death of a lady in that city, and sentenced to imprisonment for life, but was released at the end of ten years. During his incarceration his father died, and Neill, upon leaving the prison, found himself well equipped with money. After leaving the prison Cream went to England. In March last he visited Quebec, and went thence to Montreal, where he sold his stock in the Merchants' Bank. He paid a visit to his sister Rachel, and afterwards visited his brother, Daniel Cream, in Quebec. His sister Rachel sailed for Liverpool on June 15, and is probably in England by this time. She has been in constant correspondence with her brother, and comes to assist him in his trouble. While Cream was in prison in Chicago his name was struck from the roll of the M'Gill College, the last year in which it appears in the published report being 1881.

The case of Baring Brothers against the N. W. Uruguay railway was tried before Justice Grantham and Charles on the 27th ult. Sir Charles Russell appeared for the plaintiffs in support of a motion for continuing an injunction granted by Mr. Justice Day at chambers, restraining the defendants until the trial of the action from dealing with any moneys, bonds, or other securities received or to be received from the Government of the Republic of Uruguay under a concession of Auguste, 1885. The question arose on the construction of an agreement of June, 1890. The defendant company had an agreement to make a line of railway in Uruguay, the Government of the Republic guaranteeing them payment of £28,000 a year on work done. The Government having made default, Messrs. Baring, in June, 1890, advanced to the company the sum of £14,000, the company undertaking, by the agreement of that date, to repay the sum as soon as the money was received from the Government. The difference between the parties had reference to a proviso that the money was "only repayable out of moneys to be received from the Government of Uruguay on account of the said guarantee." After some conversation the matter was settled, but the terms were not stated in Court.

A terrible ballooning catastrophe occurred at the Crystal Palace last evening, which resulted in the instantaneous death of Captain Dale, the aeronaut, who had undertaken the ascent, and the most serious injury to his son, a youth of about fourteen, and two gentlemen who were accompanying the aeronaut on the trip. The ascent, which was an additional attraction to the Sunday School Choir Festival, was announced to be made at a quarter to six o'clock, and within a few minutes of that time the balloon went up several hundred feet. Just as the balloon was over the edge of the ornamental water near the Penge entrance to the Palace grounds a cry of horror went up from the many thousands of spectators, including a large number of young children. In an instant the balloon descended with frightful velocity, and struck against the railings which enclose some drainage works in progress near the lake. Striking the ground with a thud which could be heard for a considerable distance, the car rebounded against the railings, and Captain Dale was seen to be crushed into a lifeless mass. Captain Dale's son it was then found was so badly hurt as to be rendered immediately unconscious, and was apparently in a state of collapse. Blankets and rugs were procured as speedily as possible, and all the unfortunate travellers were removed to the local cottage hospital.

The three persons who accompanied Captain Dale were his son, a youth of seventeen years of age, an assistant named Mackintosh, and a Mr. Shadbolt, a passenger. Captain Dale was in very good spirits when the start was made, and cheerily called out "God-bye" to his wife and daughter, who had been assisting in the preparations, and waved his hat to the crowd of spectators, which though fairly large was to a great extent composed of children. A very few minutes after the start it became evident that something was wrong. The balloon did not ascend quickly enough, and bags of sand were thrown out with all possible rapidity; and then the aeronauts were seen frantically divesting themselves of their hats and coats, and throwing over everything they possibly could to lighten the car. The balloon almost immediately burst at a height of about 1,500ft. It began to sink slowly at first, but gathered speed as it fell, and before it had reached the earth it had attained a fearful velocity.

Directly the danger was distinctly perceived by the crowd below the air was filled with violent screams, and strong men, panic-stricken, clutched and held each other. Captain Dale was lying dead, completely doubled up, his head lying on his chest, and the other three were on top of him in kneeling and sitting postures. Mr. Shadbolt had blood streaming from nose, mouth and ears, which had been inflicted during the fall by coming in contact with a grappling iron.

It appears that while the balloon, which had a capacity for 45,000ft., was being inflated it was discovered that there was a small hole near the mouth of the silk, and this was mended with the utmost care by the aeronaut's wife on the ground. One of the most painful incidents of the sad accident is that it occurred on the birthday of Captain Dale's daughter Amy, who, as previously stated, witnessed the dreadful death of the aeronaut. Strange to say the watch worn by Mr. Shadboldt was not damaged, but in the car the aneroid barometer was the only thing found intact.

New York, June 27th.

One of the most sensational crimes ever perpetrated in a court of justice was witnessed in the Court of General Sessions in this city to-day. Judge Martin was on the bench, and the court was crowded, when the case against a man named Clergert, accused of having assaulted a girl named Sarah Devine, fifteen years old, was being heard. Clergert pleaded guilty, and was being conducted from the room by an officer, when the spectators were startled by the discharge of a pistol-shot. The prisoner dropped on the floor dead, shot through the heart, and at the same instant the prosecutrix, Sarah Devine, exclaimed, "My God! it is my brother." For a moment the judge and court officials were paralysed. The terrified spectators blocked the doorway, and the brother of the prosecutrix, John Devine, who had fired the revolver at the prisoner, was placed under arrest. The case has created great excitement in the city.

Tangier, 28th June.

The latest intelligence from Fez fully confirms the particulars already telegraphed of the critical incident which occurred in connection with the hoisting of the British flag. In accordance with Sir Euan Smith's own wishes the flag was lowered on the evening of the day when it was hoisted, and it was not to be unfurled on Sunday last, in view of the continued negotiations between the Sultan and Sir Euan Smith. Further demonstrations hostile to the British flag were expected on Sunday, but as the quickest possible journey from Fez takes from two to four days, news of the progress of the matter is necessarily delayed.

OUR LONDON LETTER.
EVE OF THE ELECTIONS.

(From our own Correspondent.)

July 2nd.

What with the elections and the still reigning depression in financial affairs the Stock Exchange is dull. Last week we were told the betting at Capel Court was 6 to 4 on Gladstone. Now it is 11 to 10 on Salisbury. I know nothing to justify this improvement in Salisburies, but as you will have the result of the elections before this reaches you, it would be unsafe to indulge in prophecies. Parliament was duly dissolved on the 28th. The ceremony was graced by an almost empty house of Commons and the "Lords" was filled chiefly by brilliantly dressed ladies. Before the prorogation Lord Salisbury, taking care to be within the letter of the law, issued an address, not to his brother peers, but to the electors of the Kingdom. It was a well-enough compiled address in the leading article style we have been familiar with in his Lordship's writings in newspapers and magazines during the last thirty five years. It was mainly a repetition of his anti-Irish, anti-popular, and anti-Catholic sentiments, just as the Queen's speech which followed, was a repetition of Tory boasting of the many Radical measures the Unionist Government had more or less mangled, and had been obliged to pass to please their Liberal allies and hoodwink voters of the labouring class. The polling will take place next week, but as far as we can judge from preliminary canters, the elections are likely to be more lively than usual. Poor Mrs Stanley, who is pluckily running the great explorer, her husband, for North Lambeth and who proves a perfect cipher in politics, and quite loses command of his brains—said she never knew what "roughs" meant until she met them the other night at an electioneering meeting when some gentry of that ilk nearly turned her and poor Stanley inside out. She would perhaps like to treat them as her husband, whom she calls "the greatest man in England," treated the niggers and dwarfs in the African forests. But so far the English roughs have the best of it with the Stanleys, though I grieve to say they are beginning badly in many parts of the country by shying gingerbread nuts, oyster shells and bath buns and other missiles not only at obnoxious candidates but at their wives. One lady, a Radical candidate's wife, was a little hurt by an oyster shell, and yea! is it not written already in the telegraphic column of the Buenos Ayres STANDARD, that the G. O. M. himself was the victim of a shocking outrage at the hands of a woman in Chester who, by the way, has not yet been discovered. The Tory candidate's carriage in four was coming one way and Mr. Gladstone in his barouche was going another. The Chester streets are narrow, and during a stoppage and consequent confusion, a woman possibly not drunk but possessed by an English sporting spirit stimulated, by a favourable chance for a shot, shyed with all her might a gingerbread nut at the ex-premier's head. Mr. Gladstone said he saw the woman aim and never witnessed anything so fierce and malicious. The gingerbread caught him on the eye; and at first it was feared the cornea was injured, but luckily nothing worse has happened than a day or two's treatment and rest, obliging the G. O. M. to appear at the Merchiston Station, Edinburgh, with a pair of black spectacles on his illustrious nose. You will observe that our English ideas of political assassination are comically harmless, though oystershells and gingerbread nuts are no joke, and make us tremble for the possibilities of the coming week. The enraged Star represents the incident as an indication of "bitter partisan spite." Rubbish. Dr. Parker, at the City Temple, improved the occasion by alluding to the outrage in an address to an immense congregation assembled to hear Dr. Talmage preach, and called it "mean, cowardly and damnable." Lord! how the polite and religious world is given to swearing. What will your senior editor say to Mr. Arthur James Balfour's speech in which reference to Professor Munro's Ulster Statistics he said—"there are three kinds of inveracities—a lie—a damned lie—and statistics." Worse still. The old fashioned electioneering caricature has turned up again. A miserable stationer of Salisbury or somewhere, has published a cartoon representing the devil dragging Mr. Gladstone into the flames of hell. I enclose a copy of it for your museum. You will see that in conception and execution nothing could be more byegone, witless and vulgar. It is a sorry sample of the march of intellect in a diocese where the bishop not long since opposed school boards. More than as a specimen of the crusted Toryism that is still in beavers, hessians and knee-breeches, the thing is unnoticeable, and the burst of virtuous indignation it has caused among "all parties" is at least more ludicrous than the caricature; and that is all that can be said for it.

July 1st.—The grert outrage on Mr. Gladstone's optic appears to have been committed by a 'lady' in a moment of frenzied admiration. A clear case of hysteria. The lady is unconsolable. Her name has not yet transpired.

LATEST FROM RIO.

July 12th.

The Botanic Garden tramway formally inaugurated the second section of its Copacabana branch on the 6th. inst.

The government has relieved Gen. Tavares of the command of the garrison of Bagé. This is to show how impartial the government really is.

The government has reconstituted the contract with the Banco União de S. Paulo, which had been annulled, for settling 20,000 families of immigrants in the Aguapehy valley.

We deeply regret to hear of the death of Mr. George Law, for many years connected with the house of Ed. Johnston & Co., which took place at his residence in this city yesterday.

President Floriano Peixote has promulgated the law passed over the President's veto, exempting from duty machinery imported into the state of Maranhão for spinning and weaving mills and for navigation and water companies.

According to cable dispatches from Rome the negotiations between the Italian and Brazilian governments are approaching a satisfactory conclusion with reference to the Santos difficulty. The Formal is of the opinion that the controversy will be settled speedily and amicably.

Col. Callado, who commands the 1st battalion of siege artillery at the fortress of Santa Cruz, protests against the charge of being implicated in the alleged conspiracy against the government. The adjutant-general of the army reports that he has confidence in Col. Callado and considers him incapable of conspiring.

The municipality is authorized to impose a tax on bootblacks of 150$ when they are over 16 years old, and 50$ when they are under that age or over 60. The tax on the women who sell various articles (notions, jewelry, etc.) from house to house varies from 12$ to 75$. Regular street peddlers will pay from 10$ to 100$—the former tax for woman, boys (under 16) and men over 60 years. The able-bodied man is expected to pay 100$. The tax on bootblacks is scandalous.

The minister of agriculture has approved the schedule of arrivals and departures of steamers of the U. S. & B. M. Steamship Co. for the 2nd half of the present year. The schedule steamers leave New-York on July 14th., Aug. 11th, Sept. 22d, Oct. 20th, Nov. 10th, Dec. 2d, and arrive at Santos on Aug. 14th., Sept. 11th, Oct. 23th, Nov. 20th, Dec. 23rd and Jan. 13th. They leave Santos on July 5th, Aug. 16th, Sept. 13th, Oct. 4th, Nov. 22. and Dec. 13th, and arrive at New York on Aug. 5th, Sept. 16th, Oct. 14th, Nov. 4th, Dec. 23rd, and Jan. 13th.

It is evident that the history of the Matto Grosso revolution will be compiled from foreign sources and we contribute the following telegram, published in the Manchester Courier, of June 13th: "New York, Saturday. Intelligence which has reached here from Matto Grosso states that the rebels there have won a decisive battle, which commenced on May 7th and continued for seven days. One thousand of the government troops are reported to have been killed, and the rebels succeeded in capturing Cuyaba, which they afterwards sacked, murdering the officials."

According to notices in the local press on the 10th, the Russian empire has recognized the Brazilian republic, and the minister will be received.

A Rome telegram of the 9th announces the appointment of S. Lugini, Consul-General at Budapest, as Minister Plenipotentiary in Brazil. The new minister will sail for Rio Janeiro on the 18th and will bring instructions for the settlement of the Santos difficulty. The Italian press has been severely criticising the treatment of Italians by the Brazilian police.

During the week the "aid to industries" has been a topic of general conversation, and the press has been filled with arguments pro and con. A numerously signed protest against the scheme was presented to the Chamber of Deputies on the 7th. According to the Jornal do Commercio, the Minister of Finance declared to the directory of Assogiao Commercial a very reserved opinion on the subject. Whether the law passes, or does not, we believe that the former hypothesis has been more than discounted in the market.

The Banco do Brazil announces a dividend for the past year of 12 per cent.

The donations received up to the 1st inst. for account of the Solimoes victims amounted to 104,330$, which amount has been placed in the bank.

The Minister of Finance has advised the Banco de la Republica that the Government having resolved that all bank notes must be of the same design, modified only in respect to the name of the issuing bank and the decree authorizing the issue, it must terminate its contract with the Leipzig printers and place its orders with the American Bank Note Co. This will put an end to the diversity of notes now in circulation, some of which are ugly enough to depreciate the best secured currency in the world.

The Minister of Finance has reconsidered his former decision and ordered the gold interest due the Banco Emissor do Norte, of which the Banco da Republica is attorney, to be paid in gold and not in gold cheques of the latter bank. The reason ascribed is that these gold cheques are not current in the market, nor in the custom houses. As some 5,400,0000$ of these cheques are still out—issued by the Banco da Republica—what does the Treasury propose to do with them? Consider them a part of the gold deposited to secure circulation possibly.—Rio News.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

The Central Northern Extension affair continues to occupy the attention of the N. R. Board. It has been decided to suppress the post of traffic-manager. It is probable that the interventor, Mr. Arturo Castaño, will be named manager. The Board have asked Government for $62,000 for the more immediate repairs. It will probably take half a million to put the line on a regular footing. It is probable the Government will send a message and bill to Congress on this subject shortly.

The N. R. Board have laid before Government the plans and estimates for the completion of the Salta Station. The estimated cost is $23,403.

The Inspector-General of Railways has issued a report in which he states that the Las Conchas Railway section from San Isidro to San Fernando may be opened to traffic on the 1st of August. It appears there will be some difficulty about the private level-crossings, of which there is a considerable number.

The Inspector-General has reported on the proposed signals at the level-crossings of the Pacific Railway and Rural Tramway. He states that the Tramway must pay the cost.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Radical procession to the Recoleta on Sunday was a model one. Not a cry was heard along the whole route: a little hissing, once only, being the only approach to disorder. The procession was about fifteen squares in length, so the numbers present can be fairly estimated by those acquainted with the holding capacity of a block. The speeches made in the Recoleta were very eloquent, and the wreaths laid on the last resting places of the July patriots magnificent.

The Deputies met yesterday. The Government asked for an extra credit for forage for troop-horses. The Senate's Bill for the Assembly to meet on August 6th, to scrutinise the Presidential election was thrown out, and a note asking the President of the Senate to name the day was voted. Sent to the Constitutional Committee. The Legislation Committee approved Deputy Magnasco's proposal to reform the Commercial Code in reference to Moratoriums. The House voted $20,000 to rebuild the Franklin Library in San Juan. Deputy Quesada presented a Bill to give $100,000 to the Waterworks Company at Belgrano. After some other unimportant business the House rose at 6 p.m.

A subscriber at Moron tried our fall-from-a-horse cure for influenza on Sunday. He was carried home on an unhinged door, perfectly cured of influenza: but declares that, should he get a relapse, he will fall back on Dry Champagne and Buchanan whisky, mixed, instead of a fall from a horse.

There is a mail for Europe to-day at noon; one for Bolivia to-morrow at 10 a.m., and for Chile at 4.30 p.m.

We thank Messrs. Mackern and Shine for late home papers to July 2nd.

The sailing of the evolutionary squadron under the command of Capt. Ceferino Martinez will not take place to-day. At the last moment a counter-order was issued. 'Hasta otro dia.'

Dr. Petrona Eyle, a talented Argentine lady, who has taken out her diploma in Medicine in Zurich, has just arrived. She is a specialist in ladies' complaints and diseases of the eyes and ears, and will shortly open consulting rooms.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. Bollini, mother of our esteemed Lord Mayor, who died yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The funeral will take place to-day at 4 p.m. from Calle Paraguay 1050. We condole sincerely with the Lord Mayor in his great bereavement.

The following are the big prizes drawn in the Montevideo Lottery yesterday:— 10793, $20,000; 7929, 1,000; 6487, 500; 3029, 500; 2172, 200; 5617, 200; 8465, 200; 5587, 5607, 4478 8003, 8136, 4066, 7721 100 each.

We hear that the ball to be given by the committee to the ladies who assisted at the British Hospital Bazaar is to beat the record; and, lest any of our subscribers or their friends should be disappointed at not receiving invitations, we may again inform them that it is a private dance given to the lady stallholders, and paid for by the gentlemen of the committee.

We have papers for Mr. Horace Wheeler.

The races at Palermo on Sunday produced over $40,000 for the Rosales Fund. Yesterday there was a grateful rumour in town that the men on the raft were picked up by a sailing vessel. This may well be, and let us all hope it may prove true. Yet it is strange the raft itself has not been found: it could not sink, and must still be knocking about on the stormy ocean.

The Clerk of the Weather had a watery look in his eye yesterday; the temperature was too high for the season; and "agua" will be down and umbrellas up before the week is out.

The Brazil—B. O. question seems to be warming up, and the annexation of Rio Grande to Uruguay—"out of the frying pan into the fire"—is spoken of. Meanwhile, troops have been sent from Montevideo to the frontier. The whole thing will end in cigarette smoke.

A subscriber who returned yesterday from a camp tour says that the whole province of Buenos Ayres is as green as old Ireland itself, and sheep-farmers declare that the last rains saved everything.

The theatres were all full on Sunday night, especially the San Martin, where Doña Juanita was given. Mephistopheles was given at the National; the new Argentine prima donna, Sta. Nuzio, making a very favourable impression on the audience. The applause for Maestro Goula at the end of the first act was tremendous. The quartette in the garden scene was vociferously encored. The gem of the evening, and which fairly brought the house down, was Marguerite's solo in the prison. The house was crammed to the ceiling, and the empresa is coining money.

We beg to thank Messrs. Galli Hermanos for late English papers to July 2d.

The Argentine Horse does not like London. He bolted through the streets there last month, and killed a bulky citizen; probably to show his patriotic disgust at the hard things said of his country by the newspapers, under the influence of the 'scaling down' scare started by our influential and esteemed London 'tocayo'. The coroner's jury let the Argentine 'potro' down easy, on the ground that he was a visitor to Buffalo Bill's Show, and unacquainted with the 'costumbres del pais'.

The concert for the new Anglican Church at Quilmes will come of on Saturday next. The programme is excellently chosen. There will be a special train for town at 11.15 p.m.

A corporal of police at Belgrano is 'in', with an ounce of lead in his body. He put on mufti and asked a milkman for his money or his life. The Biscayan gave him a dose of lead as an answer. 'Bien hecho'.

Another dreadful murder took place at Moron on Sunday night. A gentleman named Butler, hearing cries for help from a neighbour's house, rushed out and found a father and son fighting; the latter fired at him, and he received the whole contents of a shot-gun in his chest, dying on the spot. The murderer is a villain named Valerga, and the police are still looking for him.

Now, fair dames and damsels, hear what a writer in the Illustrated American says of you, and ask your male relatives and friends generally if they are prepared to endorse the flattering picture. If not, you can give them, with our compliments, as big a piece of your minds as you like. Referring to modern women, the writer in question says:—"They are nice and moderate and modest as their mothers and grandmothers, and a great deal better informed; they are willing to accept any drudgery not involving the entire extinction of refinement, and ready to worship their husbands to their hearts' content. And, as to extravagance, the charge, even as regards the society girl, is overstretched. Women are not extravagant by nature. On the contrary, they are penurious; they are even mean; they have microscopic eyes."

We regret to see that the Lords of the Manor at Campana, Messrs. Costa, sustained a heavy loss of maize and linseed by a blaze in their "galpones" on Sunday afternoon.

We have to thank Captain Salter of the Herschel for a large batch of late English papers.

The death is announced, at Montevideo, of Mr. John Donaldson Long, who was Consul for the United States there many years ago. He was only 55 years of age.

We have much pleasure in saluting Mr. Mansfeldt Findlay of the British Legation in this city, who arrived yesterday per R. M. S. Magdalena. He was for some time attached to the British Embassy at Constantinople, and subsequently to that at Vienna, from which latter city he now comes. He says that the Magdalena had a very agreeable voyage, and that the passengers were greatly pleased with the ship and her commander, Capt. Rigaud.

The suburban residents on the Pacific line feel disposed to "gold-medal" Mr. Christopher Hill for the improvement to be introduced on the 1st prox., after which date a night train will leave Central Station at 9.40 for Villa Devoto, Hurlingham and San Miguel, and a train from the latter place will call at the above stations, arriving in Buenos Ayres at 10.15 p.m.

The Rev. Father Arrache has been named to the seat in the Metropolitan Chapter left vacant by the demise of Canon Cordoba. The new Canon has a legion of friends to congratulate him, as he is alike popular with the clergy and in society.

The following gentlemen form the new Committee of the Foreign Club in Rosario:—President, Mr. J. Eggington, Vice, Mr. J. Hollman. Secretary, Mr. A. Gamelcoy. Suplentes—Messrs. J. Keenan, A. Corte and F. Leinenweber.

Ex-President Palacio, of Venezuela, managed to "save" £500,000 while he was in power, and is now trying to eke out existence on it in the gay capital of France. At least in London they consider he illustrious exile would "cut up" for the amount named, if he were to "shuffle off this mortal coil." Our London friends know a lot about South American matters in general, and Cedulas, guaranteed railways, Bateman Legacies and Municipal loans in particular.

A 'vigilante' who was trying to persuade a drunken woman with a baby in her arms to follow him to the Comisaria, was struck with a sudden happy thought; he snatched the baby from her, saying, 'She'll come now, like cows,' and started off briskly. The poor woman, with a cry as if she had been struck by a bullet, staggered after him. At the Comisaria, when she had slept off the effects of her potations, she was the first to warmly thank the policeman, as the baby ran great risk of a fatal accident in her hands while she was inebriated.

The unfortunate policemen in Rosario must be in a bad way. They get their pay in postage stamps and "vales"; and the Capital mentions cases in which the latter for $30 have been sold by the poor men for $5, to heartless speculators.

MARRIAGE IN BARRACAS.

The celebration of the marriage between A. W. Kidd Esq. (son of Dr. Kidd, Brixton, London), of the London and River Plate Bank of this city, and Miss Florence Moreau, eldest daughter of F. Moreau Esq., Architect, Buenos Ayres, took place at the Santa Lucia Church on the evening of the 25rd instant, in presence of the other members of the bride's family and a number of friends.

After the ceremony, the wedding party were driven home, and arriving there quickly augmented by new ar

ON 'CHANGE.
Monday, 25th July.
The gold market opened weak this morning and a slight fall took place in the price of the ounce. Such a lot of political rumours were brought to bear upon the market last week in connection with yesterday's political procession that the majority believed the firm condition of the premium arose from their disturbing influences. The orderly features of the procession and the removal of all the absurd fears entertained naturally had a sudden effect to-day, and bears trooped in to sell, thinking that the ounce would fall a dollar. The market, however, fell only 20 cents, which goes to show that political rumors had very little to do with the firmness of gold last week.
Thirteen thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring; the price opened at $52.60, fell to 52.30, and closed at 52 60, say 223.19 % premium. A few sovereigns were sold at $16.25 and 16.30, say 223.40 % premium. Although the month's settlement is near, no liquidation has as yet begun in the market; it is thought that the moment the liquidation process begins gold will rise, as the engagements of the bears this month are said to be very large.
Patriotic Bonds are dead-and-alive at 71.20 for cash and end of month. Internal Bonds were slightly more active at 63½ cash and end of month, and 64.10 for end of August. A few shares of the Banco de Italia y Rio de la Plata were chalked on the board at 85 and 89. Municipal Lottery Bonds closed steady at 58. Catalinas shares were dull, but the price was kept up at 10.00 and 9.90. La Plata Cedulas experienced a fainting-fit and closed weak all round.
Exchange rates quite nominal, there are very few takers in the market at current quotations. Discounts continued easy; meantime, money on 'retroventa' or land mortgage is quoted at 1¼ to 1½% per month. Fair amounts have been placed at the latter rate, but details of the operations are kept up.
The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first ring to-day:—

An important sale of land is reported in the far South at the rate of $50,000 cash per league. The details of the transaction are kept under reserve. Land brokers report little doing at present, although money appears to be superabundant in the market.
Mr. Green, manager of the Bahia Blanca North Western Railway Co. was welcomed on 'Change to-day: he reports affairs progressing in Bahia Blanca, where the numerous new buildings going up on all sides are the very best proof of prosperity.
The many friends of Mr. Alexander Kincaid will be glad to hear that he is now on the way to recovery after a sudden and sharp attack of fever. Mr. Kincaid will leave soon for the far South to take the management of the railway construction of the Rio Negro Salt Co. Ld. between the salt lakes, near Patagones, and San Blas Bay.
The Minister ordered to-day the payment of 9,981$% to Mr. Antonini for work carried out in the third section of the Government House building.
Owing to lack of water all the deep-draught steamers posted to leave for Europe had to postpone their departure. The French packet Equateur and the Chargeurs-Reunis steamer Uruguay were stuck in the docks and channel and could not leave on the appointed day. These delays are no compliment to the port engineers in the Government; measures must be taken to dredge the channel deeper. We hear also that the La Plata Channel is filling up, and that delays in that quarter are now no rare occurrence.
The Land and Colonies Office has rented to Mr. B. Echenique 20,000 hectares of land in the Pampa Central at $120 % per league per annum. This contract has been sent to the Government for approval.
Mr. E. Scarpelli has applied to the Government for authority to visit all the schools and colleges in the city, in order to draw a proper plan of ventilation and calefaction in those buildings. The same gentleman applies for a concession to supply by a novel system all the houses of the city with gas, water, electricity, &c., on the principles observed in New York.
Messrs. Mackinlay Bros. will sell on Wednesday, 27th inst., at 3 p.m., the fine Estancia Los Eucalyptus, in the district of Loberia, in the South.
There was a rumor on 'Change this morning that the missing crew of the torpedo-catcher Rosales had been picked up at sea by a passing sailing vessel. The news is not confirmed.
The Mauá certificates are at par, and the Pastoril Company request holders to call round and collect at the Company's offices. These certificates were issued by Viscount Mauá many years ago. The Viscount promised many years ago that these certificates would be redeemed at par. This promise has been kept, although he sleeps for ever in his narrow cell.
There were heavy arrivals of wool at the South Plaza this morning, but little or nothing was done. French buyers are out of the market; here and there a German buyer—a "rara avis"—flits about, but business is quite paralyzed. Advices from the manufacturing districts of the North of France are more unsatisfactory than ever, and this increases the gloom in the market.
Maize operations continue on a gigantic scale and prices are up in view of good advices from Europe. There was a purchaser of 100,000 bags in San Nicolas at $6.10 per 100 kilos; the offer was refused. At the Mercado Central de Frutos and at the Rio Santiago prices rose to $6.25 per 100 kilos. Every steamer leaving for Europe takes large consignments of the grain.
On Wednesday a meeting of merchants will be held in the parlors of the Camara de Comercio de la Bolsa to deal with the market question. A strong movement is on foot to concentrate all the export business in the Mercado Central de Frutos, and the whole market is in favour of the concentration as it will immensely simplify business and save time in running from one market to another.
With regard to the news we published the other day of the sale of the Magdalena Railway line in London, we are informed by Messrs. R. A. Wilkinson and Co., the concessionaires and constructors, that said line was sold about three years ago to the Ensenada and South Coast Railway Company, with all the rights and other concessions which accompanied the grant of above line. Latest advices announce that Messrs. R. A. Wilkinson and Co. must proceed immediately to complete the line to Punta Piedras, an extension of the above mentioned line, say a length of 64 kilometres. The works will be completed within a term of seven or eight months, as all the earthworks have been thrown up. Messrs. Hopkins, Gardom and Tetley will carry out the construction under contract. The line will traverse a magnificent country, well stocked and thickly populated: the quality of the soil is the very best in the republic for agriculture. Punta Piedras is exactly opposite to Montevideo, is a lovely locality, and may become a fashionable bathing resort before many years.

Messrs. Perez and Cueto, Ginochio and Podesta, Bellocq and Durañona, Goyenechea, Bilbao and Co., etc., have presented to Don Carlos Lix Klett, Inspector General of the Chicago Exhibition Committee, numerous valuable samples of skins of "nutria" or waterrat, and of lambs.

The Museo de Productos Argentinos is at present making a careful analysis of soil from Trenquelauquen, Olavarria, Alfalfa, Navarro, and other parts of the province specially remarkable for the excellence of agricultural products.

The gold market ruled steady at the second ring: nine thousand ounces were sold for to-morrow; the price opened at 52.50$, rose to 52.70$ and closed at 52.60$ say 223.19% premium. Patriotic Bonds were stationary; Internal bonds rose to 63.80, closing hard. Catalinas were stationary at the morning prices. La Plata Cedulas were weak.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares to-day at the second ring:—

The Veloce steamer Rio Janeiro, ex Adelaide Lavarello, left Genoa on the 22nd inst for Naples, St. Vincent, Brazil and the River Plate.

The Pomona arrived to-day from Brazilian ports. She entered port decked out with flags, and was the cause of the report that the Rosales crew had been saved. The report was an idle one.

HORSFORDS PHOSPHATIC BAKING POWDER
BARON LIEBIG, the world-renowned chemist said, "I have though a great series of experiments, satisfied myself of the purity and excellence of your preparation. The bread has no acid, is easily digested, and of the best taste. Aside from the conveniences this invaluable article of yours has provided, I consider this invention as one of the most useful gifts which science has made to mankind! It is certain that the nutritive value of the flour will be increased 10 per cent by your invention, and the result is precisely the same as if the fertility of our wheatfields had been increased by that amount.
What a wonderful result is this!"

Se remataran en la Capital Federal
En nuestra casa Alsina 480 y 482
El Miercoles 10 de Agosto
a las 2 de la tarde
Remataremos por cuenta y orden de una Sociedad y por liquidacion total de la misma, 233,762 hectareas, 65 areas y 39 centiareas ubicadas en la Provincia de Santa Fe, donde como todo el mundo sabe, existen las mas vastas y ricas colonias de agricultores de la Republica y cuyos habitantes no conocen la crisis que ha abrumado al resto de ellas, debido a las esplendidas y abundantes cosechas que les han dado estas sin iguales tierras.
La ubicacion de estas queda al Oeste del gran ferro-carril que arranca de la capital de la republica y cruza toda la rica y poblada zona de colonias terminando en la ciudad de Tucuman.
Comiénsan las tierras que se ofrecen en venta, en la Estacion Arrufo del ferro-carril mencionado y van hasta la Estacion Ceres de la cual distan 2 a 2 1/2 leguas estando el resto de ellas ubicadas sobre la Estacion Malbran extendiendose al Sud Oeste de la misma.
Todas estas tierras estan medidas, y midiendose el resto por el Agrimensor Publico, Señor Eduardo Elquera, y seran entregadas amojonadas a todos y cada uno de los compradores una vez escrituradas.
Copiamos de una carta de dicho Agrimensor, lo pertinente a la fraccion que acaba de medir, que dice:—
"Respecto de la clase de tierra, se puede considerar de tener igual calidad de tierra vejetal de 50 centimetros termino medio de tierra negra, terrenos muy altos, el agua potable obtenidosse de 6 a 12 metros. No hay montes espesos, (exceptuando las tierras que estan al Norte sobre la Estacion Malbran donde los montes son muy abundantes y en partes impenetrables) sino isletas de arboles y. g. handubay, algarrobo, palo amarillo, algarrobo negro, etc. etc.
"El lote 85 es algo bajo terreno inferior.
"Los demas lotes son adecuados para la agricultura y se encuentran rodeados de colonias es mas pobladas y otras en formacion y cerca a las Estaciones Arrufo, Herzilia, Ceres, del gran ferro-carril de B. Aires a Tucuman.
"Las poblaciones que se advierten en el plano son pobladores que tienen animales de cria (vacuno, yeguerizo y ovino) en todas ellas hay jagueles para dar agua a las haciendas.
"La temperatura de esta region es la misma que reina en de donde dista unas 20 leguas."
Creemos que con estos datos nada tenemos que alegar sobre la bondad de estos terrenos que solo necesitan los brazos de hombres para hacerlos producir y con sus frutos sacar en un par de años doble de lo que se ha pagado por ellos.
La Provincia de Santa Fe que hace apenas 15 años, puede decirse, hera casi desierta, hoy es un damero cruzado en todas direcciones por lineas ferreas pobladas por innumerables colonias que robosan de poblacion rica y activa; llenas de molinos a vapor, elevadores de granos, fabricas e industrias sin fin.
Antes del fin de este siglo, la Provincia de Santa Fe enviara al mundo de sus granos de todas clases como lo hacen actualmente los Estados Unidos del Norte.
Creemos inutil insistir en mayores detalles sobre lo que son y seran estas tierras; ahi estan sus hechos que dicen
